

Cane Ridge e-News March 2, 2009

Ole South Properties, Inc., through the John Floyd Charitable Foundation, will invest $5,000 in Cane Ridge High in support of its Career Academy Program. The company's goal in this initial support is the betterment of academic programs at Cane Ridge and increasing public awareness of the great things that are happening, and can happen, in Metro public schools.

In addition to this initial monetary support, Old South employees skilled in areas of finance, construction, marketing, and administration will be assisting teachers and students as needed throughout the school year.

Monday, March 2, will begin an MNPS Open Enrollment period for all families. During this Open Enrollment period, families wishing to enroll their child in a school outside of the regular zoned school will be able to for the 2009-2010 school year, provided seats are available at the desired school. All applications for Open Enrollment must be submitted by March 31, 2009. Cane Ridge is an open enrollment school. The list of all schools eligible for Open Enrollment, as well as an Open Enrollment application form, can be found at www.mnps.org at the Finding Where You Fit link.

During the week of April 20th-24th, CRHS will host its 1st Annual International Week: Embracing Unity and Diversity. Below is the breakdown of the week:
